SCRIPTURE: John 2:1-11 (ESV)

On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. And he said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast." So they took it. When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now." This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

"O Love, How Deep"

UMH #267 CCLI #2769327

O love how deep how broad how high
It fills the heart with ecstasy
That God the Son of God
Should take our mortal form for mortals' sake

For us He prayed for us He taught
For us His daily works He wrought

By words and signs and actions thus
Still seeking not Himself but us

For us He rose from death again
For us He went on high to reign
For us He sent the Spirit here
To guide to strengthen and to cheer

Ordinary Life

Baseball helped me realize ordinary events have the potential to _____ life.

Because if we did, we might find a commitment to the _____ has a more significant impact than an occasional flirtation with the extraordinary.

Instead, the faith of a mother, the compassion of a God's son, and some servants' willingness allowed _____ to demonstrate his power and Love for people amid their everyday lives.

He wants you to find _____ in His name.

Church, We have a calling to _____ the world that God does not just work in the extraordinary areas of life, but also in the ordinary.
